

SNOW AND COLD PROMISED

Prediction of Weather Bureau for New Year's Day Indicates There May Be Sleighting Today.

The local forecast for today is snow and colder, and as a consequence of that prophecy there are high hopes that there will be sleighing on New Year's day. Yesterday was a wet day under foot, and a trace of moisture was in the air, but the temperature was mild and no one suffered discomfort. The lowest for the day was 25, and the highest 39, which is said to be 3 degrees above normal.

There has been snowfall in a large section of the west and in the New England states. The temperatures up north have fallen lower, so that such markings as these are recorded: Bismarck, 6; Calgary, 8; Huron, 2. At Duluth it was 4 above. Lander has come out of the "below zero" column and is now 6 degrees above. East of the Rocky mountains the temperatures have been slightly colder. At Chicago a low of 18 and a high of 38 are the Rocky mountains the temperatures marked; at New York it was warmer, the record being 38 and 52; at St. Paul it was 6 above. Down in Los Angeles they had almost a "standoff," the lowest being 53 and the highest 58. At San Francisco there was recorded 48 for high and 48 for low. In commenting on the conditions, the weather man says:

The barometric conditions this morning consist of areas of low pressure on the north Pacific coast and on the New England coast, with a high pressure area extending from the Mississippi eastward to the Atlantic coast and from the Ohio valley southward to the Gulf coast. During the past twenty-four hours rain or snow has fallen in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Nevada, the lake region, middle and north Atlantic states and New England. Temperatures have moderated west of the Rockies, but have fallen over the Dakotas and over all sections east of the Mississippi river. With the advance of the north Pacific coast low pressure, rain or snow will occur in this vicinity tonight, with snow and colder Wednesday.

The meteorological report reads: Maximum temperature, 39 degrees; minimum temperature, 25 degrees; mean temperature, 32 degrees, which is 3 degrees above the normal; accumulated excess of temperature since the first of the month, 7 degrees; accumulated excess of temperature since Jan. 1, 249 degrees. Relative humidity, 73. Total precipitation from 6 p. m. to 6 p. m., trace; accumulated excess of precipitation since the first of the month, .39 inch; accumulated excess of precipitation since Jan. 1, .343 inches.

IN POLICE CIRCLES.

All old cases of an unimportant character were dismissed and thus cleared from the police court calendar yesterday afternoon in preparation for the New Year. There were about forty of these cases. Most of them had been continued indefinitely, so that they could have been taken up if the defendants did not mend their ways. The cases ranged from vagrancy and battery charges to violations of the liquor and license ordinances.

Lewis Herman, the morphine eater, who claimed that he had stolen fifty feet of rubber hose to keep his wife and two children from starving, was discharged from custody by Police Judge Diehl yesterday afternoon. Herman, before being set free, was given a severe lecture. Judge Diehl informed him that if he really loved his family he would make a manly effort to overcome the craving for drugs, and added that if the man would conquer that vice he would probably not be reduced to such straits as to be compelled to steal.

Thomas Silver, Mat Fitzpatrick and J. B. Allen, alleged vagrants, were given until today to get out of town by Police Judge Diehl yesterday. If they remain in Salt Lake they will be added to the chain gang.

Ed Brush, a messenger boy, who was arrested at the Fields apartment house several days ago, with Mrs. Cora Barndall, was arraigned before Police Judge Diehl yesterday charged with a statutory offense. He pleaded not guilty and was held under $200 bail for examination Jan. 7.

J. T. Haynes and A. G. Stewart, the two men charged with pursuing women in the street, were discharged in the police court yesterday.

Ray Price, 12 years old, son of Policeman Price, died yesterday morning of peritonitis.

D. S. Brown, the ancient fisherman, who sneaked away from the county infirmary to get drunk just before Christmas, was sentenced to thirty days in jail by Justice of the Peace Smith yesterday. Brown is 75 years old and has been a pauper for years. His conduct at the infirmary has at times been so bad that after his Christmas spree Superintendent Cottle decided that he should be disciplined.

AUSTRIAN SURRENDERS.

Says Religious Dispute Caused Trouble at Highland Boy.

On the advice of his lawyer, Parley P. Christensen, George Daneovich, who is alleged to have participated in the Austrian riot at Highland Boy last Friday night, surrendered to the sheriff yesterday, and was locked in the county jail.

Daneovich asserts that the disturbance was a continuation of the trouble between members of the Greek and

The "bars are let down" for the first time in five years, as everyone knows that we are strictly a one-price, plain-figure house, and that no condition exists where a discount is given to anyone.

Because of this policy of years standing, our offer now is unparalleled in the jewelry business in the West, as we guarantee to sell any piece of goods in our house at from 20% to 50% discount from our already low prices marked in plain figures.

It is needless for us to exploit the merits of our stock here, as it is generally conceded that the lines carried by us are of a superior quality, and that a box bearing our trade mark will contain something of splendid worth.

The Leyson Co. never offered a fake sale, and we wish to clearly state that this sale includes all our stock in every department, and that the prices marked on all goods are the same that have prevailed and will again prevail at the close of the sale.

All our imported Leather Bags, Portfolios, Glove Cases, Jewel Boxes, Purses and Card Cases, HALF PRICE. The early buyers alone can be pleased, as the line is limited.
